

Board Rule 291.33 requires pharmacists, when dispensing certain drugs, to include on the prescription label or on information provided with the prescription, the statement "Do not flush unused medications or pour down a sink or drain." The rules also specify that a drug product on a list developed by the FDA of medicines recommended for disposal by flushing is NOT required to bear this statement.